DIVISION: English and Language Studies

The English and Language Studies Division aspires to equip each student with the academic and linguistic resources necessary to improve their reading, writing, listening, and speaking skills in a multicultural context. The Division recognizes the value of different cultures and perspectives and aims to integrate this appreciation for diversity into every class we offer. The foreign languages program includes a broad spectrum of courses, ranging from language to civilization, cinema, and literature. The intermediate level courses cater to the practical use of language in literary, academic, and professional contexts. The English and Language Studies Division is committed to fulfilling the mission of Pasadena City College to prioritize equity and enrich students' lives through our programs and student support.
