CHILD DEVELOPMENT

DIVISION: Social Sciences

Earn a Certificate or Degree or take classes to start exploring child development. Either way you will gain valuable skills for your future endeavors. PCC's Child Development courses focus on a curriculum that includes children from infancy through school age. Courses provide a theoretical foundation and prepare you for careers working with with infants, toddlers, preschool, and school-age children.

The program is affiliated with the PCC Child Development Center, a state-funded and NAEYC Accredited Center. Throughout the CHDV program, you will receive supervised training at the Child Development Center as part of their curriculum.
